We’re accepting applications for a new class of docent tour guides for the Currier’s Frank Lloyd Wright homes, the Zimmerman House and the recently acquired Kalil House. Both in Manchester, they’re the only Wright houses in New England open to the public.

Applicants should be enthusiastic about engaging audiences and have a desire to learn about history, architecture, and art. A background in architecture isn’t required.

Those accepted will participate in a 12-session training course from March 5 to April 16 led by Currier staff and current docents. Classes will be held on Thursdays and Saturdays.

Course topics include workshops on interactive tours; a consideration of Frank Lloyd Wright’s buildings, major ideas, and resonance in New Hampshire and beyond; and an exploration of the two houses from multiple perspectives. Homework, in-class writing assignments and discussions, and a graduation tour are requirements; we also ask that docents-in-training shadow at least two tours.

Upon completion of the program, newly trained docents begin giving Frank Lloyd Wright tours. Fifty hours of service are required each year and training is ongoing.

An application, letter of interest, and resume should be emailed to resumes@currier.org, and will be accepted until February 29. Qualified candidates will be contacted to schedule an interview. Thanks for your interest!
Why do you want to be a Frank Lloyd Wright (FLW) docent?

Please describe jobs, volunteer positions, and/or special skills that might be applied to your work as a docent:

What are some of your favorite activities and interests?

During the interview, we will ask you to provide a 5-minute presentation on a topic you are excited about. What subject will you share?

What days and times are you available to volunteer at the Currier?

Please provide the names, emails and phone numbers of two references:
