

Class levels:

Class level: Beginner – Beginner students may have some or no experience in this medium or any artmaking method. Instructors set pace based on class progress to achieve course goals. The course focuses on introducing essential techniques and concepts while building confidence in this medium.

Intermediate/Studio Course – Intermediate students have experience and some confidence in this medium, or another similar artmaking method. Instructors set class pace to achieve course goals. In a studio course, students may also determine their own individual pacing or focus.

Advanced- Students are confident with good experience and seek to learn techniques and strategies that support their personal goals and increased mastery of this medium.